All Saints Day – November 1st

Did you know in England, saints or holy people are called ‘hallowed’ and evening was written as ‘e’en’; hence the name “All Hallow’s Eve”. The evening before the feast known as “All Hallow’s Eve” and later known as Halloween.

All Saints Day is a Holy Day of Obligation, meaning all Catholics are required to attend Mass on that day. All Saints Day honors not only the saints in heaven whom we know by name, but also the countless saints in heaven whose names are unknown to us.

Homework Assignment:

- a. To learn more about saints, I want you to research your Patron Saint. Your Patron Saint is someone who has the same name as you (it can be your first name or middle name). Or pick a Saint you want to learn more about.
- b. Click Here to complete questions about your Saint.
