

What is Confirmation?

Confirmation is one of the Sacraments of Initiation. You are baptized into Christ through Baptism, the first Sacrament of Initiation. Then you experience being nourished at Christ's table with the Body of Christ when you receive Holy Communion. Now in the Sacrament of Confirmation you will receive the full outpouring of the Holy Spirit. In these sacraments you are united with Christ and His Church, the Body of Christ.

The Effects of Confirmation

In Confirmation, we receive the 7 "Gifts of the Holy Spirit". These gifts listed below are based on Isaiah 11:2-3.

Wisdom: Wisdom allows a person to see God's work in the world and in our life. The wonders of nature, historical events, and the ups and downs of our life take on a deeper meaning and purpose because we can see them from God's point of view.

Understanding: Understanding allows us to comprehend how we need to live as followers of Jesus. This understanding allows us to sort through all the messages of our culture and not be confused by them.

Right Judgment: Right judgment allows us to discern right from wrong as taught by Jesus.

Courage (Fortitude): Courage allows us to overcome fear and be willing to take risks as followers of Jesus. Fortitude is the strength to endure and continue on even in the face of trial, ridicule, and persecution.

Knowledge: Knowledge allows us to understand God's revelation especially as revealed in Holy Scripture. Knowledge also gives you a hunger to learn more about Scripture and the Tradition of the Church.

Reverence: Reverence allows us to have a deep respect for God and what belongs to God. Reverence or piety also allows us to recognize our total reliance or dependence on God which allows us to come humbly before God in worship.

Fear of the Lord (Wonder and Awe): Wonder and Awe of God allows us to be aware of the power, glory, and grandeur of God. We are able to see the perfection of God's knowledge, goodness, love and power.

When we live a life in and through the Holy Spirit, the following Fruits of the Spirit will manifest themselves within our lives. (Galatians 5:22-23)

The 9 "Fruits of the Spirit" are love (charity), joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. The catechism also includes goodness, chastity, and modesty to make a total of 12.

TEACHING AND PRACTICES OF THE CHURCH

In this session, you will be looking at the basic beliefs of the Catholic Church as stated in the Nicene Creed and explore your personal and community viewpoints on faith.

Creed

1. A creed is a summary of basic beliefs.
2. Creeds were written to express beliefs and to confront false teachings and false understandings of beliefs.
3. A creed is a proclamation and reinforcement of our faith as a community of believers.
4. The Trinitarian Creed was the first creed of the early Church.
5. Early baptismal creeds were adapted by the early Church to make the creeds we use today, including the Apostles' Creed and the Nicene Creed.
6. The Nicene Creed was written in 323.

Directions

1. First read through the Creed.
2. Then read the Creed a second time and draw a line under the statements you understand and with which you agree.
3. Then read the Creed a third time and draw a circle around statements that are confusing or with which you disagree.
4. Discuss with your Sponsor.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
And in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial (one in being) with the Father,
through Him all things are made.
For us men and for our salvation
He came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate
of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
He suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and His kingdom will have no end.
And in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
And one, holy, Catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

3. God loves, cares and speaks within the depths of our being.
4. Over a lifetime, we gradually become more aware of His presence and listen to the Spirit guiding us on the journey of life.
5. We gradually accept God's unconditional love and forgiveness and respond with acceptance, trust and love.

STEWARDSHIP: SERVICE & SUPPORT

Saint Paul had difficulty with the Corinthian community in parading their gifts and focusing on themselves.

He emphasized the gifts are given by God for the building of the community.

The focus is not on ourselves, but how we love and serve others.

Jesus tells us that the “yoke is easy and the burden light” if whatever we do is done out of love for others.

It is serving others out of unconditional love that brings peace and joy.

Most of us need to take time to discover our gifts and talents; and it is other people that empower us to share with others.

Exploration of Talents

Write the gifts and talents that you believe you and your have which could help others and build the parish and community.

Share your responses and affirm one another in the gifts God has given you.

Write your past and present experiences of parish involvement. Note the pains and joys, the ups and downs of getting involved.

Write and share how to support your parish community with a positive attitude.

We ask each candidate to participate in a Faith in Action project. Share your insights and feelings in doing this project and others like it.

Note how sharing your gifts may have gifted you in return.

What do you ask of the church?

Part of the belonging to a church is to have our needs and wants met, especially our spiritual needs.

What do you need or want from the church? Not needed = 1 2 3 4 = Important

- to help me develop an awareness of God's presence
- to provide spiritual leadership to help me grow closer to God
- to celebrate with me the important events of life
- to provide a sacred space where I can worship God
- to provide energizing worship experiences
- to help me learn to pray and worship better
- to help me experience a sense of community
- to teach me about my faith
- to help me raise my children in the faith
- to help me prepare for the sacraments
- to pray with me when I am sick and dying
- to challenge me to overcome the patterns of sin and live a moral life
- to experience the forgiveness of Jesus
- to console me and help me in times of loss
- to show me the ways to serve the poor, sick, lonely, suffering
- to prepare me to share my gifts and talents
- to include me in the decision-making process of the church

Write a short summary of what you need most from the church.

How can you go about getting these needs and wants met?

Breaking Open the Word
