Fishers of Men: The Call of the First Disciples

Directions: Read Mark 1:14-20. Create a newspaper classified advertisement to attract new fisherman to replace Peter, Andrew, James, and John.

Reflection:

The disciples left everything—their jobs, their families, and their homes—in order to follow Jesus. If you were one of these men, would you have the courage to leave everything behind and follow Jesus?

“Come after me.”

Directions: In the box below, write down something you would have a difficult time giving up if God asked you to spend your whole life following him. For example, you might write down “Video Games” and list three reasons you would miss playing them.

Give Up

The three reasons I would miss this the most:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____
