Review of Previous Minutes –Approved June 2022 minutes

Review of Agenda

Discussion Items:

➤ Pastor's Comments: None

➤ Reflections:

RCIA Initiation of Missy Krause – Per Gary Vanness RCIA went well.

Faith and Fun Days attendance – The event was well attended and went well.

St. Nicholas Golf Outing – Well attended.

Parish Directory Pictures—Per Joe Hinshaw, approximately 240 families had pictures taken.

Country Fest June 2022 – Great turnout, more volunteers needed.

Middle School Lock-in – Only girls attended this year. We will need female chaperone if we are planning a sleep over. Encourage more boys to attend event.

➤ Capital campaign for January 2023:

Sanctuary remodel – We will revisit this in October 2022 meeting. Bob Schommer will bring plans and committee will do walk through with Fr. Chinnapan.

Outreach for Freedom Food Pantry – What do we want to do to promote contributions. Bob Schommer will get more information.

➤ Women's Cursillo October 20-23 at St. Nicholas: Per Gary Vanness, nothing is needed from the worship committee because Cursillo group does most of coordinating of the event.

- Family Fall Fest September 25, 11:30-3:00: Vegetables and ingredients for Booyah are needed.
- Religious Education Registration: Family numbers are about the same or slightly down from last year as of this time.
- School starts on Thursday, September 1st.
- New Evangelization coordinator: One application, interview this week.
- Children's liturgy of the Word leader: We are waiting on a new leader. Judy Ver Bust will reach out to a few prospects.
- Update on organ repairs: Anne contacted two vendors – Bids were given to finance council. Jim Newhouse will check with Anne on updates. Add to capital campaign?
- Bob Schommer – update on renovation of the altar area. Show Father Robert ideas. Have closing prayer inside the Church.
- New Business: New boilers are needed per Father Chinnapan and Deacon Gary. Part of Capital Campaign.

When will precious blood return to church services?

Closing Prayer/Blessing
