Discussion items:

- Pastor's Comments: See attached
- "O Sacrament Most Holy" – observations/reactions of parishioners – So far, so good; people seem to be enjoying it; very reverent
- Catholic School Mass – February 5th 10:30am – Was tremendous; very well organized
- Ash Wednesday – March 1st 11:00am mass; 4:00pm & 7:00pm Liturgy of the Word with Ashes
- Standard music selections for Funerals has been completed. – We should create something similar for weddings. Also, we need to add "See musician for fee" to paperwork for engaged couples.
- RCIA – Ask candidate if he wants the rites/if he will attend for the rites, otherwise we will not do them.
- Lenten décor – large vase of ashes, Mary and Father to discuss.
- Stations of the Cross. 1:00 on Sundays
- Lenten Reconciliation Service: Tuesday, March 14th 6:30 p.m. – Fr. Carl Meulemans, Fr. Jim VandenHogen, Fr. Jim Hablewicz, Fr. Norm Krutzik (Fr. Norm needs a ride from Appleton – Mary will pick him up).
- Palm Sunday procession? Last year we just did the procession at the 10:30 mass, but did the entrance Gospel upstairs at the other two masses – Same procedure for this year.
- Palm Sunday and Good Friday – Need lector for Narrator piece; Jesus Remember Me ostinato used will be used.
- Easter Vigil Fire – Paul Jochman to set up. Fire pit may need a little repair work – Paul will fix it up. Deacon Gary will contact Dave Everson to video stream into church.
- Easter Vigil Readings: Last year we used 7 Old Testament and 2 New Testament. – Deacon Gary and Anne will talk to Fr. Dan to discuss as he is presiding at that mass.
- Rolf Rohn's design. What is the current status – waiting on other committee's to look it over. Will be of a crucified Jesus on the cross.

Next Meeting: Tuesday, April 4th, 2017 at 6:30pm – No meeting in March due to scheduling conflicts of many group members.
